It having been reported among my friends that I visited Panaca and Bullionville just prior to the late Democratic County Convention for the purposs of purchasing voices from that quarter in favor of one of the Democratic candidates for Sheriff. I desire to contradict that statement and all such malicious inventions, and to state that any report that I interfered in that respect either out of or in the convention, is absolutely false, and an example of the convention, is absolutely false, and an example of the interfered in that respect to the contradict of the convention of the convention of the contradict of the Democratic Legislative ticket in order to secure my own election, which I have never agreed to do, and never will, nor any other man on the Democratic Legislative ticket in order man on the Democratic ticket, not desiring my own election sufficiently bad to ever induce me to resort to any but manly and honorable means to attain it. If these opposing me will confine themselves to truth I am content.
